

For Immediate Release
July 11, 2008

Media Contact:
Stephanie Jones
(757) 627-9088
stephaniej@wheelerrec.com

WHEELER INTERESTS ADVISES AREA BUSINESSES:
“DODGE, DIP, DUCK, DIVE AND DODGE!”

Charity Dodgeball Tournament to Benefit Local Student Enrichment Program

VIRGINIA BEACH, VA – Wheeler Interests, a Virginia Beach-based real estate acquisition, development, leasing and management company, announced today that it would be holding the First Annual Wheeler Dodgeball Benefit Tournament on Saturday, August 16th from 10 A.M. to 3 P.M. at Virginia Wesleyan College in Norfolk, VA. All proceeds from the tournament will go to Horizons Hampton Roads, an area non-profit organization that provides unique summer experiences to students in families with limited incomes who attend public elementary or middle schools in Norfolk and Virginia Beach.

“Our goal was to create an event that just oozes fun, and I think we’ve achieved that,” stated Jon Wheeler, President of Wheeler Interests. “We’re even creating custom-made bobblehead dolls of our larger sponsors.”

Tournament Details

- Team Registration Fee: $250
- Eight players per team (six players on the court at one time with two alternates)
- Format is best two out of three games per match
- Teams are guaranteed three matches (at least six games)
- Players must be 18 years or older
- Tournament/Referees will follow N.A.D.A. Rule Book
- Sponsorship opportunities available

“Sponsors make this wonderful event possible, and more importantly, allow for a larger end donation to our charity,” stated Susan Pleasants, TITLE. “We have created several sponsorship tiers that cater to different levels of involvement.”

To register, groups must download the registration form at www.wheelerdodgeball.com. Upon completion, please mail to Wheeler Interests, 2529 Virginia Beach Boulevard, Suite 200, Virginia Beach, VA 23452 with a check for $250.00. Checks can be made payable to Wheeler Benefit Foundation.

(MORE)

About Horizons Hampton Roads

Horizons Hampton Roads, an independent, non-profit Virginia corporation offering a unique summer experience to students in families with limited incomes who attend public elementary or middle schools in Norfolk and Virginia Beach. Every summer since 1997, Horizons has offered a continued connection to learning in independent school settings. Through the assistance of partners, Norfolk and Virginia Beach public schools and independent schools, Cape Henry Collegiate and Norfolk Collegiate Schools, Portsmouth Catholic and Portsmouth public schools and the support of many Hampton Roads individuals, corporations, and organizations, Horizons Hampton Roads provides eligible students up to nine summers filled with fun and rewarding experiences.

About Wheeler Interests

Wheeler Interests is a Virginia Beach, Virginia-based real estate acquisition, development, leasing and management company, specializing in shopping centers of 50,000 to 300,000 square feet as well as free-standing, stable, single-tenant triple net properties. Men's Fitness Magazine named the company one of the 15 Fittest Companies in America in 2008. Wheeler Interests' properties are anchored or shadow-anchored by major regional and national tenant stores such as Food Lion, Farm Fresh, Stein Mart and TJ Maxx. Wheeler Interests' properties are located throughout the East Coast, South and Southwest. For more information, please visit the company's Web site at <http://www.wheelerint.com/>

###